QUALITY PRODUCTS FOR THE HIGHLY COMPETITIVE OILFIELD INDUSTRY

FET is a distributor of bearings and oilfield consumables with multiple locations around the world. Our fully-stocked warehouses in Texas, Edmonton, Aberdeen and Dubai stock a complete range of products. FET delivers products of the same high quality you expect from original equipment manufacturers (OEMs).

FET has developed an extensive cross-reference and interchange database which — coupled with our library of catalogues for products and equipment — ensures that we can provide you quality replacement parts at very competitive prices.

The only oilfield bearing supplier with multiple locations world-wide

FET stocks products exclusively for the oilfield industry. As a result of this specialization, we are able to carry high inventory levels of the parts you require, ensuring quick availability of products that would ordinarily require extended wait time. Our bulk purchasing policy guarantees availability and ensures a competitive price for you. As a distributor for the world's largest manufacturers, we supply only the highest-quality products.
